

Schools Build Assets
Suggested Student Assessment Questions

1. What are his dreams? His vision for life as a young adult?
2. What are her strengths? How will she use them to build success during high school?
3. Does she have a career interest now? If not, when and how can the team help her discover her interests and preferences?
4. What skills need to be developed or improved to help her make progress toward her goals?
5. Are there any at-risk behaviors that might interfere with his success?
6. In what school and community activities will/does/could she participate?
7. What does the team believe his course of study will look like?
8. What transition services, supports and accommodations does he need for success in high school?